

Black-necked Crane

The Black-necked Crane is found in parts of Asia. They have a light grey plumage with a black head and upper neck. There is a white patch behind the eye and a red paged of bare skin at the crown.

See colors and learn more

