

Black-throated Blue Warbler

The Black-throated Blue Warbler is species of migratory New World warbler named for the plumage of adult males. They have dark deep blue upperparts, white underparts, with a black mask and throat. Females have an overall greyish olive plumage. Both have a white square visible on the mid-wing.

See colors and learn more

