

Burrowing Owl

Burrowing Owls are small owls with long legs found throughout parts of the Americas. They tend to be active during the day and use underground burrows for nesting and roosting. Burrowing Owls have bright yellow eyes and brown wings and bodies with variable light spots and bars. Males and females look alike.

See colors
and learn more

