

Canada Goose

The Canada Goose is native to North America and is occasionally found in northern Europe. It has a black head and neck with a white "chinstrap". It has a brownish-gray body and a black bill and feet.

See colors and learn more

