

Chilean Flamingo

The Chilean Flamingo is the most widespread species of all flamingoes. They can be recognized by their iconic pink plumage, grey legs, pink "knee" joints, and the amount of black on their uniquely-shaped bills.

See colors and learn more

