

European Goldfinch

The European Goldfinch looks very different from its American counterpart. It has a red face, black and white head, brown upperparts, white underparts with buff flanks and breast patches, and black and yellow wings. Its bill is ivory-colored and the feet are pink.

See colors
and learn more