

Grey Crowned Crane

The Grey Crowned-Crane is found in eastern and southern parts of Africa. They have a striking plumage, which includes a greyish neck, dark grey body plumage, red throat wattles, and a large white cheek patch. The distinctive crown is made of stiff yellow feathers.

See colors and learn more

