

Laughing Gull

The Laughing Gull is a medium-sized "dark-headed" gull found in parts of the New World. During breeding season, the Laughing Gull has a black head with a dark red bill. The black hood fades outside of breeding season and the bill becomes nearly black. The species is named for its laughter-like call.

See colors
and learn more

