

Lilac-breasted Roller

The Lilac-breasted Roller is a colorful bird that lives in parts of Africa and the Arabian Peninsula. Males and females look alike. They have light green caps and napes, brownish backs, and turquoise-green underparts. They are named for the bright lilac feathers on their breasts.

