

Northern Goshawk

The Northern Goshawk is blue-gray above and barred grey and white below. Adults have a white eye stripe and develop dark red eyes usually after their second year. The beak and legs are yellow.