

Northern Pintail

The Northern Pintail is a widely-distributed dabbling duck found in parts of the Americas, Africa, Europe, and Asia.

The breeding male has a rich brown head, white breast, and dark streaking across the grey-brown back.

The tail may be nearly four inches in length.

