

Pied Avocet

The Pied Avocet is a striking shorebird with long, slender blue-gray legs and a distinctively upturned black bill. Its plumage is a clean white with bold black markings on its wings, back, and crown, creating a striking contrast. The Pied Avocet's elegant appearance and unique coloring make it easily recognizable.

See colors and learn more

