

Royal Tern

The Royal Tern is a large species of tern found across parts of the New World as well as Africa and Europe. During breeding season they are recognized by their heavy orange-yellow bill and prominent black hood. The hood becomes patchy outside of breeding season.

See colors
and learn more

