

Spectacled Owl

The Spectacled Owl is a distinctive large owl that lives in forests of the Neotropics. It is a beautiful large owl with unique markings. The head, upper breast, and back are a rich brown color. The underparts are a warm off-white. The face is marked with white around the eyes and under the chin, giving the bird a spectacled appearance. They have yellow eyes.

See colors and learn more

